

RHS Senior Survey – Parent

Student Name _____

Dear Parent,

This is your opportunity to tell me about your child. Because you know your child best, please share your thoughts about your son or daughter by answering the following questions. Your responses will be a valuable resource when I write your child's recommendation letter. All answers are completely confidential.

Can you think of any major events that you see as a turning point in your son/daughter's development, either academically or personally?

His/her high school career has been pleasurable and/or painful because..... (Please feel free to write about both aspects).

What I would like college admissions staff to know about my son/daughter is.....

His/greatest strength is.....

His/her greatest challenge is.....

Are there aspects of the college search and selection process that are likely to cause family friction? If yes, would you be willing to share them?

Is there anything you wish to add which would help in writing the counselor's recommendation letter for college? Examples might be special family circumstances, medical history, family trauma, etc.

Thanks so much!
